

Treviso Airport

The Antonio Canova Airport in Treviso obtained in March 2018 the level NEUTRALITY of Airport Carbon Accreditation programme and it is committed to reducing its greenhouse gas emissions.

Infact it declared to decrease by 60% by 2030 its emissions compared to 2012, the base year under consideration.

This information sheet is used to let you know the various means of transport that you can use to reach different locations and their CO₂ emissions per person arising from their use.

